CHURCH HISTORY: With the blessing of the Church Council, Carolyn Ronan has been researching the events leading to the formation of the St. James Congregation. Research at the Lutheran Archives reveals that from 1933, Pastor Henry Harnath would use Whyalla as a pitstop on his way around the Eyre Peninsula visiting Whyalla and 13 other locations on his BSA Bantam motorcycle. When in Whyalla he would stay at the home of Paul & Rose Havelberg.

Song of the Week

HAND IN HAND

Words Norman Habel
Music Robin Mann

When I consider God's design, raging seas and searing sand,
I hold my breath,
but even more.

I stand in awe.
When all creation
joins in praise.
Hand in hand,
hand in hand.
All creation joins in praise,
hand in hand.
